DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

- I. Claims 1-18 and 19, drawn to a client interface system for handling event requests, classified in class 705, subclass 9.
- II. Claims 20-30 and 31-36, drawn to an e-acquisition method for processing an event request based on business rules, classified in class 705, subclass 8.
- III. Claims 37-38, drawn to an e-acquisition system for processing applications, classified in class 705, subclass 8.

The Inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

2. Group I to II

Inventions I and II are related as process and apparatus for its practice. The inventions are distinct if it can be shown that either: (1) the process as claimed can be practiced by another materially different apparatus, or (2) the apparatus as claimed can be used to practice another materially different process. (MPEP § 806.05(e)). In this case the method of Invention II contains a determination step for determining which handler the request is to be sent to. Invention I describes a system

(i.e. an apparatus) where there is no determination function claimed. Therefore the two inventions are independent and distinct.

3. Group I to III

Inventions I and III are related as subcombinations disclosed as usable together in a single combination. The subcombinations are distinct from each other if they are shown to be separately usable. In the instant case, invention I has separate utility such as a client interface system for handling event requests and can be conducted without providing an e-acquisition system for processing applications. Further one does not need to provide an e-acquisition system for processing applications in order to provide a client interface system for handling event requests. The subcombination has a separate utility such as an e-acquisition system for processing applications. See MPEP § 806.05(d).

4. Group II to III

Inventions II and III are related as subcombinations disclosed as usable together in a single combination. The subcombinations are distinct from each other if they are shown to be separately usable. In the instant case, invention II has separate utility such as an e-acquisition system for processing an event request based on business rules, and can be conducted without providing an e-acquisition system for processing applications. Further one does not need to provide an e-acquisition system for processing applications in order to provide an e-acquisition system for processing an event request based on business rules. The subcombination has a separate utility such as an e-acquisition system for processing applications. See MPEP § 806.05(d).

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and the search required for each of the Groups I, II and III is not required for each of the other groups (i.e., I, II), restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
